The Fort McClellan Restoration Advisory Board (RAB) is a forum to provide advice to the United States government on issues relative to the environmental cleanup and restoration of Fort McClellan, an Army base located in Calhoun County, Alabama. The RAB facilitates communication between the government and the community on these same issues.

The RAB is a volunteer organization comprised of interested citizens, representatives of the United States Army and various environmental regulatory agencies. The RAB meets semi-annual (April and October) on the third Monday in the Transition Force Conference Room, 681 Castle Avenue, Building 200, Fort McClellan, beginning at 5 p.m. Meetings usually last approximately one hour, depending on agenda items.

Membership on the RAB is voluntary and members are not compensated for their time or services. The attached application is for regular membership on the RAB. While you are not required to answer all of the questions, failure to answer might remove our application from consideration. Please provide all the information you feel is relevant to your application. The information related to minority status is requested only to promote a diverse membership. The RAB does not exclude any person from membership on grounds of race, gender, religion or national origin.
